D Home Fetes the BEST DESIGNERS 2004

ON A BEAUTIFUL, CLEAR FEBRUARY EVENING, at the home of Christine and Wick Allison, D Home hosted a small reception honoring the individuals voted the "Best Designers in Dallas." It was a remarkable gathering of design Titans, high-level repartee, and amazing music by songwriter and pianist Gary Floyd. Guests feasted on delicious grilled vegetable or jerk-rubbed chicken sandwiches, shrimp cocktail sticks, applewood-smoked bacon lollipops, grilled chicken jalapeño hash in tortilla cups, and—the pièce de résistance—Jack Daniels chocolate mousse cake from George Catering. Michelle Nussbaumer, one of those voted "best" and also the Allisons' designer, helped ready the house, and friends—Jim Williamson of I.D. Collection, Brad Oldham, Chris Brumley of Brumley Gardens, Tanya Huffaker of M Bountiful, along with D Home marketing director Mary Poe—helped to pull together a setting worthy of the most talented people in the industry. >>
