

JOSEPH MINTON ASID

Joseph Minton has been an award-winning designer in the Dallas-Fort Worth area for more than 35 years. Minton received the prestigious national ASID "Designer of Distinction Award" in 1996, based on his career-long achievements.

Minton and his staff of designers continue to be in demand at his design studio, where they bring his signature use of antiques and accessories to interiors in a fresh, contemporary manner. Minton strives to create comfortable spaces that are beautiful, classic, and timeless.

Minton's life-long love of antiques prompted him to open Joseph Minton Antiques in 1998, which has since become a celebrated source for antiques and accessories, primarily from England and France.

Joseph Minton and his associates continue to bring their talent and innovation to everything from residences and ranches to corporate offices and country clubs, where he continues to set high standards for design excellence.
