

Joseph Minton, 3320 West 7th Street, Fort Worth, TX 76107 (817) 332-3111

Joe Minton, ASID, has been designing and creating beautiful and exciting projects from his Fort Worth office for the past 25 years. His work ranges from glamorous houses, apartments and mansions to log cabins and ranches. His projects have included assignments such as Cowboy Stadium and The Ballpark at Arlington boxes, airplanes and boats. His commercial work has included offices, country clubs and restaurants. His work is published frequently in Architectural Digest, Southern Accents, Veranda, House Beautiful and Interior Design. He is included in AD 100, Architectural Digest's Guide to the World's Finest Designers, Town & Country Guide to the Top 55 Decorators in The United States, and Who's Who in Interior Design. Paula Lowes, associate designer on the sunroom, has worked with Joe Minton for 9 years.

GARDEN CONSERVATORY

The sunroom's white trellage and ceiling and classical French doors with arched fan lights provide an elegant background for the new casual teak furniture of Sutherland and the hammered iron pieces from the Minton-Corley Collection.
